

The mucilage is a mucus membrane on the outside of the cell. Color it orange.

Color the cell wall red. The cell membrane is inside the cell wall. Color the membrane blue.

The cytoplasm occupies most of the cell and is shaded gray. Color it pink.

The nucleus is centered in the cell. Color it purple.

The chloroplasts cross the cell diagonally – color them green.

The cell contains several large vacuoles. Color them yellow.